

NON-ICI COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

BETWEEN:

OPCMIA Local 598

(Hereinafter the "Union")

-and-

Brown Daniels Associates Inc.

(Hereinafter the "Employer")

May 01, 2019 – April 30, 2022

WHEREAS the Union is a council of trade unions composed of the Operative Plasterers and Cement Masons International Association of the United States and Canada, Local 598, and

WHEREAS the Employer wishes to obtain employees from the Union, or the Union is otherwise entitled to represent employees of the Employer within the bargaining unit described in this Collective Agreement;

NOW THEREFORE IT IS AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

ARTICLE 1. – PURPOSE

1.01 The general purpose of this Agreement is to establish mutually satisfactory relations between the Employer and the members of the Union it employs, to provide a means for prompt and equitable disposition of grievances, and to establish and maintain satisfactory working conditions for all workers who are subject to its provisions.

ARTICLE 2. – RECOGNITION

2.01 The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent for all construction employees engaged in the NON-ICJ sectors of the construction industry in the Province of Ontario save and except non-working foremen and persons above the rank of non-working foreman, office and clerical staff.

ARTICLE 3. – UNION SECURITY

3.01 All Employees shall, when working in a position with the bargaining unit described in Article 2 hereof, be required as a condition of employment, to be a member in good standing with the Union before commencing employment and shall be required to maintain such membership while working within the bargaining unit for the duration of this Agreement.

3.02 In the event that the Employer desires to employ a new employee, the new employee must present to the Employer a referral slip from the Union prior to his commencing employment. It is understood and agreed that the Union may refuse to issue a referral slip to the employee as requested by the Employer, only in the event that the employee is not a member in good standing of the Union.

3.03 The Employer shall discharge an employee within fort-eight (48) hours of notice by a union representative if the employee is not a member in good standing.

3.04 The Employer shall not be required to discharge any employee for any reason other than non-payment of regular monthly dues or the refusal of the employee to join the Union as aforementioned, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained.

3.05 The Employer agrees that prior to hiring new employees for any work covered by this Agreement, it will inform the Union of its requirements in order to allow the Union the first opportunity to supply such qualified members from the Union hiring hall.

3.06 It is agreed that the following information pertaining to the workers will be supplied to the Union monthly:

- (a) all job site locations
- (b) employee/member classification
- (c) hourly wage rate
- (d) number of total hours paid
- (e) social insurance number
- (f) current address and telephone number

3.07 If the Union cannot supply such qualified members from the Union Hiring hall, the Employer may hire the required employees elsewhere, provided:

- a) that the employer informs such employees that as a condition of employment that they must apply for and secure membership in the Union
- b) the Employer shall inform the Union, in writing within two (2) business days of the commencement of such employees' employment, of the names of such employees, their social insurance numbers and the location of the job where they are working.

3.08 Each employee shall, when working in a position within the bargaining unit described in Article 2 have his union dues and any additional assessments deducted from his weekly pay cheque. The Employer agrees to make such deductions and remit the same to the Union or its Administrators on the fifteenth (15th) day of the following month and no later than the 20th day of the following month. The Employer shall, when remitting such dues or assessments, name the employees and provide the social insurance numbers of those from whose pay such deductions have been made.

ARTICLE 4. – MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

4.01 The Union agrees that it is the exclusive function of the Employer covered by this Agreement:

- (a) To conduct its business in all respects in accordance with its commitments and responsibilities, including the right to manage the jobs, locate, extend, curtail or cease operations, to determine the number of men required at any or all operations, to determine the kinds of locations of machines, tools and equipment to be used and the schedules of production, to judge the qualifications of the employees and to maintain order, discipline and efficiency;
- (b) To hire, discharge, classify, transfer, promote, demote, lay-off, suspend or otherwise discipline employees, provided that a claim by an employee that he has been discharged, suspended, disciplined, or has been subjected to disciplinary demotion without reasonable cause shall be subject to the provisions of the grievance procedure;
- (c) To make, alter from time to time, and enforce reasonable rules of conduct and procedure to be observed by the employees;
- (d) To assign and re-assign work to employees to determine and judge the content and functions of all jobs and classifications, to change and vary at any time such work assignments, to introduce new and improved methods and equipment and establish and maintain an efficient mobile work force with diverse skills. It is agreed that these functions shall not be exercised in a manner inconsistent with the express provisions of this Agreement or in a manner which is unreasonable, arbitrary, and discriminatory or in bad faith.

ARTICLE 5. – SUBCONTRACTING

- 5.01 An Employer may sub-contract work, or any part of the work on a project, that falls within the craft jurisdiction of this agreement, to any sub-contractor, provided the Unions, cannot supply qualified members from the Union hiring hall. The Employer shall also send written notice to the Union of the engagement of the sub-contractor by the Employer, prior to the award and commencement of work by the sub-contractor, at which time the Union will be given the opportunity to provide qualified personnel. The Employer will submit a contract duration and scope of work to the Union. Preference in Sub-contracting shall be given to companies in contractual relations with the Union.
- 5.02 If an Employer sub-contracts work, the Employer shall pay the Union Sub-Contracting Permit Fees of $1500.00 per working month for the duration of the subcontract or $100 per worker per month as long as the Sub-Contractor is on site. Any Employer that fails to send notice to the Union, or pay the required sub-contractor fees in accordance with the foregoing sub-articles, shall be subject to the following liquidated damages:

First Violation	$ 1, 000.00
Each subsequent violation	$ 2, 500.00

ARTICLE 6. – PERMIT EMPLOYEES

- 6.01 When the Employer requests a union worker and no union worker can be supplied, then the Employer may hire a permit worker. Any permit employees may not exceed five hundred (500) working hours. The Employer agrees to pay to the Union a Work Permit Fee in the amount of 3.7% of their rate plus vacation pay until the permit period of five hundred (500) working hours is completed. The Work Permit Fee are payable to the Union by the 15th of the month following the work month.
- 6.02 After the permit employee has completed a permit period of five hundred (500) hours, it is understood that the employee will be a full member of the Union and continue working. The Employer must notify the Union of the employee's classification and the hourly rate of pay. This employee will not be classified any lower than a First-year apprentice. This in no way limits the Employer's right to promote a permit employee beyond the next highest paid apprenticeship rate, or to the journeyman's rate.
- 6.03 At no time shall the number of permit employees exceed fifty (65%) of the total work force.
- 6.04 Benefit Contribution: The Employer agrees that when permit employee has completed his five hundred (500) hours then this permit employee will be entitled to receive the earned contributions to the health and welfare plan in the amount of three hundred and sixty (360) hours to start their benefits and pension
- 6.05 If a permit employee does not reach the permit five hundred (500) working hours and is then no longer employed by the Employer, but then returns back to employment for this Employer, the worker will be entitled to any hours he has accumulated from the Employer bound to this Agreement. This permit employee's hours will be held for a period of twelve (12) months, at which time the Employer must request from the Union to re-employ this permit workers again as set out in 6.02.

APPENDIX "B" – ARBITRATION PROTOCOL

The parties have agreed to the following protocol for the conduct of arbitration under the Collective Agreement ("the Protocol"). This Protocol shall form part of the Collective Agreement and be enforceable.

1. The party referring the grievance to arbitration shall contact either, Mr. Jules Bloch, Ms. Diane Gee or Mr. Norm Jesin, and obtain a hearing date, starting time and location. The date, starting time and location shall be at the discretion of the Arbitrator. Hearings may be set to take place during daytime or evening hours, or on weekends.
2. The party referring the grievance to arbitration shall serve the Employer with a notice of referral of arbitration, by personal service, facsimile or by overnight courier or mail, or their equivalent, and shall copy the Arbitrator.
3. Service shall be effective upon receipt, if personal service, facsimile or courier is used or shall be deemed to have occurred on the second day after mailing, if overnight mail is used.
4. Either at the time of making the referral or after, where a party requests a pre-hearing order from the Arbitrator, it shall serve the other party with its request at the same time that it serves the Arbitrator with the request. The party of which the request is made shall have until 5:00 p.m. of the next business day after service of the request to file any response to the request with the Arbitrator and the referring party. The referring party is not entitled to any opportunity to reply to responses filed with the Arbitrator.

6. The Arbitrator shall have the power to make the Arbitrator's cost (fees and costs, such as service, administrative, rental of hearing venue, etc.) an Award of party of an Award, to be payable to the Union or the Employer or both, in trust for the Arbitrator.
7. The Arbitrator shall have the powers of an arbitrator under the Labour Relations Act and under the Collective Agreement, including but not limited to the power to require records and/or documents to be produced prior to and/or at a hearing, and the power to issue Summonses to Witnesses and thereby compel attendance. The Decision of the Arbitrator, including orders for payment of any monies in respect of damages, fees, costs and/or penalties of any sort, shall be deemed to be a decision of an arbitrator pursuant to the Labour Relations Act and enforceable as such.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING

Recognizing that the work covered by this Agreement and in the construction industry in general is competitive.

And recognizing that the Employer relies on being able to efficiently and effectively apply the terms of this Collective Agreement to that work as required by this Agreement in order to maintain its business.

Now therefore the Parties agree that:

- (a) The Union will not offer terms more favorable than those contained in this Agreement to any other Employer, Contractor or Subcontractor with whom it holds bargaining rights; and
- (b) Should the Union agree to a Collective Agreement with more favourable terms with another Employer, Contractor or Subcontractor, the Union will offer those same terms to the Employer for the geographical area and the time period set out in such agreement.
- (c) When an employer works in an area where the rates are higher the workers will receive the higher rate of pay, terms and conditions for the area.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING (B)

Recognizing that the work covered by this Agreement and in the construction industry in general is competitive.

And recognizing that the Employer relies on being able to efficiently and effectively apply the terms of this Collective Agreement to that work as required by this Agreement in order to maintain its business.

Now therefore the Parties agree that:

- (a) The parties hereby irrevocably agree that if after giving notice to bargain they are unable to conclude a collective agreement, either party may, by giving notice of its intention to proceed to voluntary arbitration to the other part in writing ("Notice"), refer all matters remaining in dispute between them to an arbitrator for final and binding determination.
- (b) It is the parties' intention that the agreement set out in sub-article (a), above engages section 40 of the Labour Relations Act, 1995, and that Notice shall have the effect of an irrevocable agreement within the meaning of section 40 of the Act.
- (c) The party that gives Notice shall invite the arbitrator to act. Invitations shall be made to the following arbitrators, in rotation, or to such other arbitrators as may be agreed upon by the parties.
