ARTICLE 1 - INTENT AND PURPOSE

1.01 The general purpose of this Agreement is in the mutual interests of the Employer, the Union and the employees and is to provide for the effective operation of the Employer's business and to establish and maintain a satisfactory procedure to cover the settlement of differences arising out of this Contract, and to set forth those working conditions which have been negotiated.

ARTICLE 2 - RECOGNITION

2.01 The employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive bargaining agent of all of its employees engaged in the construction industry in the Province of Ontario, save and except non-working Foremen, persons above the rank of non-working Foreman.

2.02 The words "employee" or "employees" wherever used in this Agreement shall mean any or all of the employees in the bargaining unit as defined above, unless the context otherwise provides.

2.03 Non-working foremen and supervisory personnel shall not do the work normally performed by members of the bargaining unit if this means that existing employees will be laid off, remain on layoff, or if it means a reduction in working hours for these employees.

ARTICLE 3 - MANAGEMENT'S RIGHTS

- 3.01 Except as, and to the extent specifically modified by this Agreement, all rights and prerogatives of Management are retained by the Employer and remain exclusively within the rights of the Employer and its Management. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Employer's rights include:
- a. the right to maintain order, discipline and efficiency; to make, alter and enforce rules and regulations, policies and practices, to be obeyed by its employees; to discipline and discharge employees for just cause;
  - b. the right to select, hire and control the working force and employees; to transfer, assign, promote, demote, classify, layoff, recall, suspend and retire employees; to plan, direct and control operations; to select and retain employees for positions excluded from the bargaining unit and to transfer employees into the bargaining unit;
  - c. the right to operate and manage the Employer's business in order to satisfy its commitments and responsibilities, the right to determine the kind and location of business to be done by the Employer, the direction of the working forces, the scheduling of work, the number of shifts, the methods, processes and means by which work is to be performed, job content, quality and quantity standards, the right to use improved methods, machinery and equipment, the right to determine the number of employees needed by the Employer at any time, the number of hours to be worked, starting and quitting times; and generally, the right to manage the business of the Employer without interference are solely and exclusively the right of the Employer;
  - d. the sole and exclusive jurisdiction over operations, buildings, machinery, equipment shall be vested in the Employer.
- 3.02 The Company agrees that prior to implementing rules and regulations or policies and practices, it will provide the Union with a copy of such rules and regulations or policies and practices to allow the Union an opportunity to make representations to the Company regarding such rules and regulations or policies and practices.

ARTICLE 4 - UNION REPRESENTATION

4.01 The Employer recognizes the right of the Union to select or otherwise appoint a number of stewards to assist employees in presenting any complaints or grievances they have to representatives of the Employer.

In no case, however, shall the number of stewards exceed two (2) for the first fifty (50) employees and one (1) additional steward for every additional twenty-five (25). The Union will advise the Employer, in writing, of the identity of Union representatives and the Employer shall not be obliged to recognize such persons until it has been so informed.

4.02 The Union acknowledged that stewards have regular duties to perform as employees of the Employer and that such employees will not leave their regular duties for the purpose of conducting business in connection with the Administration of the Agreement or the investigation or presentation of grievances, without first obtaining the permission of their Foreman or immediate Supervisor. Such permission will not be unreasonably withheld.

The Employer will pay stewards at their regular hourly rate for time spent attending such meeting during their working hours.

4.03 Representatives of the Union will have access to visit job sites or convening yards during normal working hours subject to the following:

- a. The Union representative shall identify himself to the job Foreman upon arriving at a job site;
- b. In no case will such representative interfere with the progress of work.

4.04 The Union has the right to appoint the members of a Negotiating Committee. Employees on the committee shall be paid by the Employer at their regular hourly rates for all time spent on negotiating a collective agreement with the Employer, whenever this takes place during the regular working hours of the employees concerned.

4.05 Union stewards will be laid off only in proportion to the employee numbers outlined in article 4.01. This means that one union steward may be laid off after 25 employees have been laid off, and one additional union steward may be laid off for each additional 25 employees laid off. This article shall apply only if the union steward is able to perform the work available at the time of layoff.

ARTICLE 5 - NO STRIKES OR LOCKOUTS

- 5.01 During the term of this Agreement, or while negotiations for a further agreement are being held, the Union will not permit or encourage and employees shall not engage in any strike, slowdown, or any stoppage of work or otherwise restrict or interfere with the Employer's operation through its members.
- 5.02 During the term of this Agreement, or while negotiations for a further agreement are being held, the Employer will not engage in any lockout of its employees.
- 5.03 The word "strike" and the word "lockout" as used in Article 5.01 above shall have the same meaning given to those words in the Ontario Labour Relations Act, R.S.O. 1980.
- 5.04 The Employer shall not require an employee to work on any projects or sites that are under a legal strike or lockout.

ARTICLE 6 - UNION MEMBERSHIP

- 6.01 The Union and the Employer will cooperate in maintaining a desirable and competent labour force. The Employer will notify the Union of manpower requirements giving as much prior notice as possible. The Union will provide a list of manpower available. The Employer at its discretion may hire employees so listed or from other sources.
- 6.02 Students employed by the Employer during the summer vacation months of May, June, July and August shall be exempt from the pension plan and the benefit plan provisions of this Collective Agreement. However, in the event that such students continue to be employed beyond the second week in September, the Employer agrees to retroactively contribute pension benefit plan contributions for all hours worked in the preceding two (2) months by such employees.

- 6.03 New employees will be hired on a six (6) month probationary period and thereafter shall attain regular employment status. Probationary employees shall not have the right to grieve a discharge or layoff.
- 6.04 Probationary employees are covered by the Agreement, excepting those provisions that specifically exclude such employees.

ARTICLE 7 - CHECK-OFF

7.01

- a. The Employer shall deduct from each employee, from the commencement of employment, an amount equal to Union Dues as set by the National Convention of the Union and as continued within the Employer Dues Directive issued by the Union office.
- b. The Employer is authorized to deduct any administration dues owing by an employee to the Union when hired.
- c. The total amount(s) checked off and/or deducted on behalf of the Union will be turned over by the Employer to the Union by the fifteenth (15th) day of each month following the month for which the monies were deducted, together with an itemized list of the employees for whom the deductions are made and the amount turned over for each.

7.02 Employees who, because of conscientious objection, as determined by the Union's internal guidelines, cannot support the Union may apply to the Union in writing. Such application shall outline the nature of the conscientious objection.

7.03 In order that the Employer may have definite instructions as to what amounts are to be deducted for Union dues and initiation fees, it is agreed that the Union will promptly notify the Employer, in writing, over the signature of its designated officer, the amount of the deduction to be made by the employee for regular Union dues, and the Employer shall have the right to continue to rely on such written notification until it receives other written notification from the Union signed with the same formality.

claim that the Employer has acted wrongly or illegally in making such deductions.

ARTICLE 8 - WAGES AND RATES OF PAY

ARTICLE 9 - HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

- 9.01 It is hereby expressly understood and agreed that the provisions of this Article 9 are for the purpose of computing overtime and shall not be construed to be a guarantee of or a limitation upon the hours of work to be done per day or per week or otherwise nor a guarantee of working schedules.
- 9.02 The Employer will attempt to distribute overtime work as evenly as possible among employees who normally perform the work and who indicate they wish to work overtime.
- 9.03 Because of the difference in the nature of work between "cost plus" crews and "specific contract" crews, Article 9 shall be divided into two (2) sections. Article 9.04 to 9.06 shall apply to "cost plus" crews, and Article 9.07 to 9.09 shall apply to "specific contract" crews.
- 9.04 Cost Plus Crews

Regular shifts shall be between eight (8) and twelve (12) hours in length. Saturday work will be voluntary.

Regular hours of work and overtime provisions may be amended on a job by job basis by mutual agreement.

9.09 Work shall not normally be performed on Sunday. However, if extraordinary circumstances necessitate work on Sunday, time worked shall be paid at the rate of two times (2x) the regular rate of pay. Such work requires the prior consent of the Union.

ARTICLE 10 - VACATION AND HOLIDAY PAY

10.01 Vacation and statutory holiday credits shall be paid to employees covered by this Agreement at the rate of ten percent (10%) of the gross wages earned. For tax purposes, such credits shall be added to the employees weekly pay and taxed prior to deduction. It is Effective January 1, 2015 this amount will increase to one dollar and seventy-five cents ($1.75) per hour.

ARTICLE 18 - LAYOFFS

- 18.01 Before giving notice of lay-off, the Employer will first meet with a steward or CLAC Representative to discuss alternatives, and to discuss the employees affected.

ARTICLE 19 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 19.01 The grievance procedure herein provided for are among the most important matters in the successful administration of this Agreement.

The Employer and the Union therefore agree that the designated grievance procedure, as hereinafter set forth, shall serve as and constitute the means to be utilized by the grievor for the prompt disposition, decision and final settlement of a grievance arising in respect of the interpretation, application, administration, or alleged violation of this Agreement, and the specifically designated grievance procedure shall be strictly followed. Wherever the term "grievance procedure" is used in this Agreement, it shall be considered as including the arbitration process.

- 19.02 "Grievance" shall mean a complaint or claim concerning improper discipline or discharge, or a dispute with reference to the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement.
- 19.03 The Employer shall be under no obligation to consider or process any grievance unless such grievance has been presented to the Employer in writing at Step 1 of the grievance procedure within five (5) days from the time the circumstances upon which the grievance is based were known or should have been known by the grievor. However, if the Employer does consider or process a grievance which has been presented late, the Employer shall not be stopped or precluded at any stage from taking the position that the grievance is late and not arbitrable.
- 19.04 All time limits referred to in the grievance procedure herein contained shall be deemed to mean "work days."

19.05 No employee shall have a grievance until he has discussed his complaint with his Foreman. If the employee's Foreman does not promptly settle the matter to the employee's satisfaction, an employee's proper grievance may be processed as follows:

Step 1

If an employee has a grievance, the grievance shall, within five (5) days referred to Article 19.03 hereof, be reduced to writing and presented to the designated Employer representative. The designated Employer representative shall give the grievor a written reply as soon as possible, but not later than five (5) days after such decision. If such reply is not satisfactory to the grievor, the next step must be taken within five (5) days of the designated Employer representative's answer, but not thereafter.

The grievance referred to above shall identify:

- a. the facts giving rise to the grievance;
- b. the section or sections of the Agreement claimed violated;
- c. the relief requested;

and shall be signed by the employee.

Step 2

At this step, the written grievance shall be presented to the designated Employer representative within the aforesaid five (5) days of receipt of the designated Employer representative's reply, but not thereafter. A meeting will be held between the Steward together with the grievor involved and designated Employer representative and other representatives of the Employer, within five (5) days of the presentation of the written grievance to the designated Employer representative. The designated Employer representative shall give his written reply to the Steward within five (5) days of such meeting.

If the designated Employer representative's reply is not satisfactory to the grievor, the next step must be taken within five (5) days after the delivery of the designated Employer representative's reply to the steward, but not thereafter.

Step 3

In the event the grievance is not settled at Step 2, the party having carriage of the grievance shall request arbitration of the grievance pursuant to Section 133 of the Ontario Labour Relations Act, R.S.O. 1990 within five (5) days from the delivery of the decision at Step 2 to the Steward, but not thereafter.

19.06 The board of arbitration shall not be authorized to make any decisions inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, nor to alter, modify or amend any part of this Agreement, nor to adjudicate any matter not specifically assigned to it by the notice to arbitrate specified in Step 3 of Article 19.05 hereof.

19.07 Union Policy Grievance or Employer Grievance

A Union policy grievance or an Employer grievance may be submitted to the Employer or the Union, as the case may be, in writing, within ten (10) days from the time the circumstances upon which the grievance is based were known or should have been known by the griever. A meeting between the Employer and the Union shall be held within five (5) days of the presentation of the written grievance and shall take place within the framework of Step 3 of Article 19.05 hereof. The Employer or the Union, as the case may be, shall give its written decision within five (5) days after such meeting has been held.

If the decision is unsatisfactory to the grieving party, the grievance may be submitted to arbitration within fifteen (15) days of the delivery of such written decision and the arbitration sections of this Agreement shall be followed.

If the Employer is not advised of the Union's intention to proceed to arbitration within five (5) days, the Employer shall not be liable for any damages during the foregoing fifteen (15) day period.

The provisions of this paragraph 19.07 shall not be used by the Union to institute a grievance directly affecting an employee or employees which such employee or employees could themselves institute, and the provisions of Article 19.05 hereof shall not thereby be bypassed.

ARTICLE 20 - SUBCONTRACTING OF WORK

20.01 Subject to Article 20.02, the Employer may contract out work where:

- a. he does not possess the necessary facilities or equipment;
- b. he does not have and/or cannot acquire the required manpower;
- c. he cannot provide the specified quality or is unable to meet projected time limits.

20.02 The Employer shall not subcontract any bargaining unit work covered by this Agreement if employees qualified to do the work are on layoff; if employees qualified to do the work must be laid off, demoted or discharged as a result of the subcontracting out of work; or if other members of the Union qualified to do the work are available for the work.

ARTICLE 21 - JOB TRANSFERS

21.01 Employees who are interested in transferring to another position shall advise the Company of such interest by filing a request for transfer. When a job vacancy occurs, the Company will give priority to employees with applications on file prior to hiring a new employee.

21.02 Any employee who, for the convenience of the Employer, is temporarily transferred for one (1) or more days to another job for which the rate of pay is different from that in effect for such employee's regular job, shall be paid the higher rate while so employed at the Employer's discretion.

21.03 Any employee who, for the convenience and benefit of the employee, is temporarily transferred for more than one (1) day to another job instead of being laid-off due to lack of work, breakdown of machinery, or other like cause, shall be paid the rate for the job to which he is transferred while so employed.

ARTICLE 22 - DURATION

22.01 This Agreement shall become effective on the seventh (7th) day of January two thousand and thirteen (2013), and shall remain in full force and effect until the sixth day of January, two thousand and sixteen (2016) and shall continue automatically thereafter during annual periods of one year each, unless either party notifies the other party in writing as provided for in Article 23.02 of its desire to negotiate amendments to this Agreement.

22.02 Notice that amendments are required shall only be given during the period of not more than ninety (90) days and not less than thirty (30) days prior to the sixth day of January, two thousand and thirteen (2013) or similar periods thereof.

22.03 If notice of desire to amend this Agreement is given by either party in accordance with the foregoing, the other party agrees to meet for purposes of negotiations.
