COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

ARTICLE 1 - PURPOSE

- 1.01 The parties to this Agreement desire to foster and maintain a relationship among the Home, the Health Care and Service Workers Union, CLAC Local 304, and the employees which is in every respect conducive to their mutual well-being. For that purpose, the parties hereby pledge to fairly administer this Agreement.
- 1.02 If this Agreement is silent on any existing rights and privileges, this shall not mean that either the Home or the employees are deprived of such rights or privileges, nor shall it mean that the Home is deprived of the right to change or alter such employee rights or privileges. The Home agrees to inform the Union prior to initiating such changes and to consider any submissions by the Union regarding such change.
- 1.03 It is understood that the efficient operation of the Home and quality care to residents is the first priority of management and all staff.

ARTICLE 2 - RECOGNITION

- 2.01 This Agreement covers all employees of Owen Hill Care Community, save and except the Director of Administration, office manager, Director of Care, office administrator, supervisors and persons above the rank of supervisor and office staff, and as outlined in the certificate of the Ontario Labour Relations Board, dated March 16, 1981.

- 2.02 A full-time employee shall mean an employee in the bargaining unit who is regularly and recurrently working more than forty-five (45) hours bi-weekly. A part-time employee shall mean an employee in the bargaining unit who is regularly and recurrently working forty-five (45) hours or less bi-weekly. For purposes of clarification the term regularly and recurrently means a time frame of no less than six (6) calendar months.

“Casual Employee” is an employee who is not regularly scheduled to perform bargaining unit work but can be scheduled and/or called to work only in the event that:

- a. all available regularly scheduled employees are scheduled to work, or
- b. the calling in of a regularly scheduled employee will incur overtime.

For the purposes of this Agreement, the casual employee shall progress up the wage grid on the same basis as a part-time employee of the job classification for which he/she has been hired. However he/she shall be exempted from the provisions of scheduling provisions such as float days, sick days, benefits and sick leave.

Vacation pay shall be paid out on every pay.

Casual employees must provide their department manager with a report of their availability to work two (2) weeks in advance of each schedule being posted, with the requirement that they will be available for all shifts as well as two (2) weekends per month.

A casual will be terminated should he/she neglect to submit their availability on three (3) occasions.

A casual employee who fails to work three (3) times in the schedule period for which he/she indicated availability or they are inactive for a period of six (6) months shall lose his/her employment status, except where such an absence is approved by the Employer.

- 2.03 Supervisors, or other personnel outside the bargaining unit, shall not perform work normally done by employees in the bargaining unit if that would mean less available work for the latter, except in the case of emergency or where no employee within the bargaining unit is available or qualified to do such work.
- 2.04 There shall not be any contracting out of work normally done by the bargaining unit during the term of this Collective Agreement if that contracting out results in less available work for present employees. The Union agrees to consider any situation which in the opinion of the Home would necessitate subcontracting of work. This clause shall not apply to the use of contracted or registry employees to accommodate short-term emergency situations.

- 2.05 The Union agrees that it is the function of the Home to manage the facility. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it is agreed that the Home will:
- a. maintain order, discipline and efficiency;
 - b. hire, classify, direct, promote, and lay off employees;
 - c. discharge and discipline employees whenever necessary;
 - d. direct and supervise the employees' work and determine work schedules;
 - e. after consultation with the Union, make and alter from time to time any rules and regulations governing the work of employees.

The Home shall exercise its rights in a just, fair and reasonable manner.

- 2.06 The Home shall consult the Union on the number of employees required and their respective duties; however, all staffing levels will be determined by the Home after such consultation in accordance with the provisions of the Long-Term Care Homes Act.
- 2.07 Where the feminine pronoun is used in this Agreement it shall mean and include the masculine pronoun where the context so requires and vice-versa.

2.08 Students under eighteen (18) years of age and regularly working less than twenty (20) hours bi-weekly are excluded from this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3 - UNION REPRESENTATION

- a. Stewards appointed by the Union are Representatives of the employees in the processing of grievances.
- b. CLAC Representatives represent the employees in all matters pertaining to this Agreement. They are authorized to negotiate amendments to or renewals of this Agreement and to enforce all rights of the employees under this Agreement and under law.

3.02 A Steward shall be given time off, without loss of wages or seniority, to assist an employee in the presentation and investigation of a grievance whenever it is necessary to deal with the grievance during working hours.

The Steward shall, prior to leaving their work area, first obtain permission from their department head. Such permission shall not be withheld unreasonably. The Steward shall report back to the department head at the time of their return to work.

3.03 The Union has the right to appoint up to four (4) members to the bargaining committee. The make-up of such committee shall be representative of the membership.

The Home shall pay the members of the bargaining committee at their regular hourly rates for all time lost from regularly scheduled hours up to and including the conciliation stage. It is agreed and understood that these hours do not count towards overtime. The Employer shall send the Union an invoice for paying fifty percent (50%) of the cost related to the payment for the lost time for regularly scheduled hours.

3.04 The Employer agrees to inform all new bargaining unit employees that a Collective Agreement is in effect upon hire. The Union Steward and Union Representative will have an opportunity to interview each new employee, individually or in a group, within their regular working hours and without loss of pay for any employees involved. The purpose of the interview is to inform the new employee about the Union in the facility, to provide an explanation of the Collective Agreement provisions and exceptions. Such interviews may take place during the first thirty (30) calendar days of employment and shall not exceed fifteen (15) minutes (if possible, thirty [30] minutes will be scheduled for group of three [3] or more).

a. The parties agree to establish an active labour-management committee. The committee shall be made up of an equal number (three [3] of each) of bargaining unit and management who have completed their probationary period, unless agreed otherwise (Union Stewards, the Union Representative and Management). Other persons may attend provided that they are not scheduled to work during the scheduled meeting time.

- b. The committee shall keep minutes of its meetings and post them in the Home.
- c. The committee shall appoint from among themselves a chairperson and a recording secretary with such positions rotating as agreed upon by the committee.
- d. The committee shall meet once every three (3) months. Meetings shall be convened at approximately the same time every month, with the time and date of the meeting to be set by mutual agreement. The agenda for the meetings shall be in writing with finalized copies given to all committee members at least two (2) days before the meeting.
- e. The committee shall deal with all matters of mutual concern, however, the committee shall not deal with grievances or negotiations and it is not empowered to alter or amend any of the terms of the Collective Agreement or in any way infringe on the requirements and minimum standards of the Ministry of Health.
- f. Any employee may refer matters to the committee for consideration. Such referrals shall be in writing to the committee.

- g. After having been dealt with by the committee, any unresolved issue(s) may be forwarded by a committee member to the Employer's head office.

The Employer's representative(s) from its head office and a Union Representative will convene a meeting with the committee at the Home to discuss the matter. Such a meeting shall take place within thirty (30) days of being referred to the Employer.

- h. The parties commit themselves to these procedures in recognition of their joint responsibility and mutual desire to give the best possible care to the residents entrusted to them.

ARTICLE 4 - STRIKES OR LOCKOUTS

- 4.01 During this Agreement and while negotiations (including arbitration proceedings) for a renewal agreement are taking place, the Union shall not permit or encourage any strike, slowdown or stoppage of work, and shall not otherwise restrict or interfere with the Home's operations through its members.
- 4.02 Without limiting the provisions of Article 2.05, during this Agreement and while negotiations (including arbitration proceedings) for a renewal agreement are taking place, the Home shall not lock out any of its employees, or deliberately restrict or reduce hours of work nor lay off employees without prior consultation with the Union.

ARTICLE 5 - JOB POSTING, HIRING AND TRANSFERS

5.01 When a vacancy occurs in any department of the facility within the scope of the bargaining unit, it shall be posted as soon as reasonably possible and indicate:

- a. whether the position is full-time, part-time or temporary;
- b. the job requirements;
- c. the starting date;
- d. the department concerned;
- e. shift to be worked and approximate number of shifts for part-timers.

A copy of the posting shall be given to a steward.

5.02 When filling a vacancy, the Home shall give preference to an applicant employee with most seniority, providing that employee is qualified to perform the work. No part-time employee shall permanently fill a vacant full-time position until that vacancy has been posted and an employee has applied for the position. No full-time employee shall fill a vacant part-time position until that vacancy has been posted and an employee has applied for that position.

5.03 If a vacant position cannot be filled with employees that are employed, the Home shall give preference to an employee on layoff, provided such employee is, in the Home's judgment (which judgment shall not be unreasonably exercised), qualified to perform the work.

- 5.04 Posting of vacant positions shall be done for at least seven (7) consecutive days. Applications received outside of the time frame referenced need not be considered. (Whenever two [2] or more applicants are in the Home's opinion qualified to fill the opening, the senior employee shall be given a trial period as set out in Article 5.05.) The Home may fill the vacancy on a temporary basis until a permanent candidate has been selected.

Should the position be vacated via the trial period in Article 5.05 the next applicant to the original posting will be considered and so on until the position is filled. Should there be no applicants the position will be reposted as per Article 5.01. It is agreed that the Employer may advertise externally simultaneously with the job posting procedure.

- 5.05 An employee selected to fill a vacant position shall hold that position for a trial period of thirty (30) working days. The position shall become permanent after the trial period unless:
- a. the employee feels that she is not suitable for the job and wishes to return to her former one; or
 - b. the Home feels that the employee is not suitable for the job.

In either case, the employee will return to her former position and wage rate without loss of seniority. Any other employee, promoted or transferred as a result of the rearrangement of position(s), shall also be returned to her former position and wage rate without loss of seniority.

These provisions shall also apply in the event of a transfer to a job outside the bargaining unit. It is understood, however, that no employee shall be transferred without her consent to a position outside the bargaining unit.

- 5.06 A temporary vacancy is defined as a continuous period of six (6) weeks or longer due to an employee on a leave of absence, WSIB or illness.

ARTICLE 6 - UNION MEMBERSHIP AND CHECKOFF

- 6.01 Neither the Home nor the Union shall compel employees to join the Union. Neither the Home nor the Union will discriminate against any employee because of Union membership or lack of it, and will inform all new employees of the contractual relationship between the Home and the Union. Before commencing work, any new employee will be referred by the Home to a steward in order to give the steward an opportunity to describe the Union's purposes and representation policies to the new employee.

6.02 The Union agrees that it shall make membership in the Union available to all employees covered by this Agreement.

- a. The Employer is authorized and shall deduct each pay period an amount equal to union dues from each employees pay. Such deductions commence the first full pay period of the employment of an employee.
- b. The amount shall be calculated according to the Unions dues policy. The Employer shall also deduct any administration assessment authorized by the Union.
- c. The total amount checked off will be sent to the Union before the fifteenth (15th) of the following month after the check off is made, together with an itemized list of the employees for whom the deductions are made, their hours worked, and the amount checked off for each.
- d. The Home shall be saved harmless for all deductions and remittances made in accordance with the terms of this Article.
- e. The total amount of Union dues annually paid by an employee shall be indicated on the employees T-4 slip.
- f. When remitting union dues and or administrative assessments contemplated by Article 6.03 a) and b), the Employer will continue its practice of providing the current employment and contact information for each employee. In the event that an employee voluntarily provides their email address to the Employer, the Employer will include the email address in the information provided. Further, in the event that the Employer amends or updates their collection method or software, the Employer will include the employee's email address as a mandatory field and provide same, along with the remainder of the employment and contact information when remitting the dues and assessments.

6.04 Employees who cannot support the Union because of conscientious objection, as determined by the Union's internal guidelines, may apply to the Union in writing.

ARTICLE 7 - WAGE PROGRESSION, PROBATIONARY PERIOD AND REHIRING

7.01 Full-time employees shall serve a probationary period of four hundred and twenty-five (425) hours. Part-time employees shall serve a probationary period of four hundred and twenty-five (425) hours or six (6) months, whichever comes first. Upon completion of this probationary period, an employee shall obtain seniority which shall be calculated from the employee's start date. Accumulation of seniority shall be in accordance with Article 12.01.

Effective January 1, 1991 employees scheduled to work less than ten (10) shifts per bi-weekly pay period shall accrue seniority and service for purposes of seniority, wage progression and vacation progression one (1) year equals eighteen hundred (1800) hours worked (and hours not worked and paid).

For purposes of seniority and service effective January 1, 1991 all employees on staff at that date shall receive credit of eighteen hundred (1800) hours worked (and hours not worked and paid) for each year of employment since their start date.

- 7.02 On or before the expiry date of an employee's probationary period, the Home will notify her in writing that:
- a. she will receive a permanent appointment; or
 - b. During the probationary period, employee shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of this Agreement, except with respect to discharge. An employee who has not completed his/her probationary period may be discharged based on a fair and proper assessment against reasonable standards of performance and suitability. After completion of the probationary period, seniority shall be affected from the original date of last hire.

7.03 Persons with more than fifty-four hundred hours (5400) of paid experience in Ontario in the classification for which they are hired will be started at the one (1) year rate, it being understood that such experience must have been gained in the five (5) years prior to the date of hiring.

It shall be the responsibility of a newly hired employee to provide reasonable proof of recent or related experience within thirty (30) days of their date of hire in order to be considered for a salary increment, and if she fails to do so she shall not be entitled to recognition.

It is understood, however, that such employees will serve the normal probationary period.

ARTICLE 8 - JOB CLASSIFICATIONS, RATES OF PAY AND CALL-INS

8.01 Employees shall be classified and paid in accordance with Schedule "A" which is attached to this Agreement and forms a part of it.

a. Wages shall be paid on applicable Fridays, on a bi-weekly basis. Payment shall be by way of direct deposit into the employee's account. Employees pay statements will be made available on line on the Thursday before the identified Friday pay day.

- b. Minor shortages in pay cheques will be paid the following pay period when brought to the attention of the Home. When the Employer makes an error in excess of fifty dollars ($50.00) the employee will be paid within seven (7) business days.
- c. Payroll information will include vacation hours available.

8.03 When a new classification in the bargaining unit is established by the Home or the Home makes a substantial change in the job content of an existing classification, which in reality causes such classification to become a new classification, the Home shall advise the Union of such new or changed classification and the rate of pay established. If requested, the Home agrees to meet with the Union to permit it to make representations with respect to the appropriate rate of pay providing any such meeting shall not delay the implementation of the new classifications. Where the Union challenges the rate established by the Home and the matter is not resolved following any meeting with the Union, a grievance may be filed at Step 2 of the grievance procedure within seven (7) calendar days following any meeting. If the matter is not resolved in the grievance procedure, it may be referred to arbitration, it being understood that an arbitration board shall be limited to establishing an appropriate rate based on the relationship existing amongst other classifications within the Home and duties and responsibilities involved.

Any change in the rate established by the Home either through meetings with the Union or by a board of arbitration shall be made retroactive to the time at which the new or changed classification was first filled.

8.04 When an employee reports for work in the normal manner and is notified that no work is available, she shall receive one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of her scheduled shift (rounded to the next highest hour) with pay. This clause is void if the employee receives prior notice not to report for a shift.

8.05 When an employee is called in on her scheduled day off, she shall be paid from the start of the shift, or from the time of the call, whichever is later, provided she arrives within a reasonable time of being called (or arrives at the normal start time as the case may be). Under normal circumstances a “reasonable time” shall be within one (1) hour of being called.

a. The Nursing Home shall maintain a call-in list for all employees by classification. For the purpose of this Article, classifications shall be:

- i. Housekeeping and Laundry
- ii. Dietary and Breakfast Cook
- iii. Cook
- iv. Health Care Aide/PSW
- v. Registered Practical Nurse

- vi. Registered Nurse
- vii. Activity Aide

Once the call-in list within the classification is exhausted, the Employer shall call employees who are qualified and trained and willing to work in the classification in order of seniority.

- For clarity and in accordance with Article 12.03 seniority for these call-ins shall be considered for job posting seniority.
- b. Employees on the call-in list shall be called in order of department seniority beginning with the most senior employee. Full-time employees who work less than seventy-five (75) hours bi-weekly and do not wish to be on the call-in list shall serve the Employer with written notification.
 - c. A Union Steward may request to see the call-in list such request will not be unreasonably denied. Each call will be electronically recorded and the record will indicate the result of the call such as “shift was worked”, or “no answer” or “refused” etc.
 - d. The Home shall by pass an employee on the list who would be eligible for overtime premium if called in to work until such time that all employees are eligible for overtime premiums.

- e. Should there be a requirement to replace an employee for more than two (2) consecutive shifts, those shifts may be offered to one (1) available part-time employee in order of seniority.
 - f. Employees have regularly scheduled shifts. Their first commitment is to those shifts.
 - g. Part-time employees will be committed to work additional shifts upon request by the Employer to replace a full-time employee. The Employer will recognize the integrity of the part-time position and will not make unreasonable requests for additional work by part-time employees. Unreasonable or consistent refusal by a part-time employee to work additional shifts upon request may result in disciplinary action.
 - h. It is understood that qualified employees may be placed on more than one (1) department call-in list. Employees who choose to do so shall be called in, in accordance with 8.06 b).
- 8.07 Failure to be available a minimum of six (6) shifts in any thirty (30) consecutive day period may result in further work not being offered to the employee involved and the employee may be removed from the call-in list. Employees shall be offered work in accordance with operating requirements and their stated availability.
- 8.08 Due to the nature of services necessary in the Home, part-time employees may be required and scheduled to work either Christmas Day (inclusive of December 25th and 26th) or New Year's Day (inclusive of December 31st and January 1st) by the Home. Failure to work as required and assigned may result in the employee being removed from the call-in list, unless otherwise agreed upon in writing.

ARTICLE 9 - HOURS OF WORK, WORK SCHEDULES AND OVERTIME

- 9.01 Overtime at the rate of one and one-half (1½) times an employees equivalent hourly rate will be paid for all time worked in excess of seven and one-half (7½) hours in a day, or seventy-five (75) hours in a two (2) week period. All overtime must be authorized by the Home.
- 9.02 After exhausting all efforts, including efforts to distribute overtime on a voluntary basis, the person with the least seniority within the classification will be required to work. It is understood that the employer will, when requiring an employee to stay, take into consideration, the employee's immediate personal circumstances.
- 9.03 It is agreed that the normal shifts shall be as follows:
- a. The first shift of the day shall commence on or about 10:00 p.m. and finish on or about 6:00 a.m.
 - b. The second shift of the day shall commence on or about 6:00 a.m. and finish on or about 2:00 p.m.

- c. The third shift of the day shall commence on or about 2:00 p.m. and finish on or about 10:00 p.m.

The parties recognize that there are existing shifts, including short shifts, that vary from the times set out above and that there may be requirement to change shifts or establish alternative shifts in the future.

The parties may amend these terms providing they mutually agree and they indicate their agreement in writing. Provided however that agreement by either party shall not be unreasonably withheld.

- a. Employees shall receive an unpaid lunch break of one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) hour in case they are scheduled to work a shift of five (5) or more hours.
- b. Employees shall receive a fifteen (15) minute break with pay during each four (4) hour period at a time determined by the Home.
- c. Employees on a short shift of four (4) hours or less shall receive one (1) fifteen (15) minute break with pay.
- d. The unpaid lunch break mentioned in 9.03 a) shall not be interrupted. Where the unpaid meal break is interrupted the portion of the unpaid meal break missed will be rescheduled.

In the event that the department head or designate determines that the missed portion of the unpaid meal break cannot be rescheduled the employee will receive his/her regular hourly rate for the missed portion of the unpaid break. Payment for such hours shall not contribute towards overtime.

Except in cases of emergency, these breaks shall not be interrupted.

- 9.05 The Home shall arrange shifts so that each full-time employee shall receive two (2) weekends off in four (4) and every part-time employee shall receive two (2) weekends off in six (6), or more often if possible, unless weekend work is at the request of the employee. If employees are scheduled more often than the above (and it is not at their request), then the employee shall be paid a premium of time and one-half ($1\frac{1}{2}x$) the regular rate of pay for all weekend work. For the purposes of this Article, a weekend is considered to be a Saturday and a Sunday, unless otherwise mutually agreed.

If an employee is scheduled to work more often than the above, she will receive premium payment of time and one-half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) for all hours worked on that weekend, subsequent weekends, until their weekend is scheduled off, save and except where:

- a. Such weekend has been worked by the employee to satisfy specific days off requested by such employee;
- b. Such employee requested weekend work;
- c. Such part-time employee has accepted an additional shift which is on her regularly scheduled weekend off;
- d. Such weekend work is worked as a result of an exchange.

9.06 No employee shall be scheduled to work more than six (6) consecutive days, or more than ten (10) days in any two (2) week period. However, employees may exchange working days and off days, providing such exchange is approved by the Home in writing and providing no employee shall, as a result of such an exchange, work more than seven (7) consecutive days. If there are scheduling difficulties, the Home and the Union shall meet to find a mutually satisfactory solution. It is understood that in circumstances where shifts are given away, approval is at the discretion of the Home.

9.07

a. Nursing Staff

No employee shall be scheduled to work more than two (2) different shifts in any one (1) week. Each employee shall have a break of at least twelve (12) hours between shifts.

b. Housekeeping, Laundry and Kitchen Staff

No employee shall be scheduled to work more than two (2) different shifts in any one (1) week. Each employee shall have a break of at least twelve (12) hours between shifts.

- c. Part-time employees may be scheduled to work three (3) different shifts in a week provided there is a minimum of eighteen (18) hours between such shifts.

The above provisions for a twelve (12) hour break between shifts do not apply in cases of emergency or mutual agreement.

9.08 A full-time employee shall be paid at one and one-half times (1½x) hourly rate for all work performed on an assigned day off, except if such work is done as a result of a voluntary switch in hours with another employee. The Home may call in an employee to work on her scheduled day off at the regular rate of pay if the employee is willing to work and has not worked seventy-five (75) hours in that two (2) week period.

9.09 A new employee shall be considered a paid observer or helper during her first six (6) shifts, for the purpose of orientation. The new employee shall be paid in accordance with the minimum wage as set out in the Employment Standards Act and as amended from time to time for the six (6) shifts. If she successfully completes probation she shall be paid the difference between minimum wage rate per hour and the start rate for all hours worked during orientation. On such occasions the new employee shall work in addition to the regular number of employees. In case of registered staff they shall be paid the start rate for orientation.

9.10 The Home shall post work schedules on a six (6) week basis at least two (2) weeks prior to the effective day of the schedule. All part-time employees are responsible to ensure that they advise the Employer of their availability to work additional shifts at least two (2) weeks prior to the posting of the schedule. Where an employee does not provide their availability, the Employer shall schedule them as required in order of seniority. No changes shall be made in the schedule after it has gone into effect, unless there is agreement with the employee(s), or in the case of an emergency. The prohibition against changes shall not apply to employees displaced from the schedule as a result of another employee returning from WSIB or extended illness.

9.11 Employees scheduled to work eight (8) to ten (10) shifts every two (2) week period, shall have an opportunity to apply in writing on or before July 15th of each year to change their scheduled hours effective for the first full pay period in September of each year to eight (8), nine (9) or ten (10) shifts every two (2) week period.

Subsequent shifts may be posted for a temporary period of one (1) year in either one (1) or two (2) shift increments. Such postings shall be awarded on the basis of seniority, provided that the applicant is willing and able to work their current rotation and the posted shift(s). It is understood that no posted position will be given to any employee that would result in the employee becoming eligible for overtime premium as defined in this Collective Agreement.

Should the successful part-time staff vacate the drop shift posting; the pool of part-time and casual staff will be used to fill the shifts through the call-in process until the posting can be filled. This option will be in place should the full-time staff decline to accept the shifts until the posting can be filled.

It is understood that this may change the status of said employee for purposes of pro-rata benefits, vacation, seniority and wage progression and said employees shall transfer credits for the latter three (3) issues on the basis of eighteen hundred (1800) hours worked (and hours not worked and paid) equals one (1) year.

It is further understood that the Home may, at its discretion, post a replacement of such employees as an eight (8), nine (9) or ten (10) shift position.

- 9.12 Where there is a change to daylight savings from standard time or vice versa, an employee who is scheduled and works a full shift shall be paid for the actual number of hours worked. No overtime shall apply to this provision.
- 9.13 All employees are expected to be on time and at their unit ready to begin work at the beginning of their shift in accordance with the Collective Agreement.
- 9.14 In the event employees of their own accord, for their own personal convenience, may arrange to change shifts with appropriately qualified other employees, with prior approval of the Administrator or her designate. The Employer reserves the right to request signed statements from such employees and shall not be responsible or liable for overtime rate claims and non-compliance with the above provisions that might arise or accrue as a result of the exchange of shifts. Employees shall be limited to four (4) such exchanges in one (1) scheduled period, unless otherwise authorized by the Employer in exceptional circumstances. Such permission shall not be unreasonably denied.

ARTICLE 10 - VACATION AND VACATION PAY

- 10.01 Employees shall be entitled to vacations according to the following schedule:

OWEN HILL CARE COMMUNITY

If the action or condition is of a continuing or recurring nature, the limitation period shall not begin to run until the action or condition has ceased. The limitation period shall not apply to differences arising between the parties concerning the interpretation, application or administration of this Agreement.

24.04 A "Group Grievance" is defined as a single grievance, signed by a steward and a CLAC Representative on behalf of a group of employees who have the same complaint. Such a grievance must be dealt with at successive stages of the grievance procedure, commencing with step 1. The grievors shall be listed on the grievance form. Should such a grievance be referred to arbitration, the matter shall be adjudicated as a group grievance.

party in default, appoint a single arbitrator to hear the grievance, and his decision shall be final and binding upon both parties.

25.08 It is agreed that the arbitration board shall have the jurisdiction, power and authority to give relief for default in complying with the time limits set out in the Articles dealing with grievance and arbitration procedures, where it appears that the default was due to a reliance upon words or conduct of the other party.
