The following time off rules will apply to all employees:

1. Vacation Requests:

- a. Requests for the annual vacation period of June 1 – May 30, shall be submitted to the Supervisor, or designate, by February 28th for approval.
- b. All requests will be granted in order of seniority subject to the provisions of this Letter of Understanding and Article 19.6
- c. The approved vacation schedule will be confirmed no later than April 15th .
- d. Vacation requests for the annual vacation period beginning June 1st which are submitted after February 28th must be submitted at least 2 weeks in advance of the vacation time requested and will be considered after April 15th, on a first come, first serve basis.

2. Scheduled Time Off

For the purpose of this Letter of Understanding, scheduled time off means scheduled vacation pursuant to Article 20, scheduled Recognized Holidays pursuant to Article 19 – Recognized Holidays and Scheduled Personal Leave pursuant to Article 15.1.

Part-time vacation pay is outlined in Article 20.14. In addition to payment, part-time employees are entitled to time off in accordance with the Employment Standards Act as amended.

3. Considerations When Approving Time Off Requests

- a. All employees will be given the opportunity to take a block of 2 weeks (or two blocks of 1 week) during prime time. A block is defined as Monday to Sunday. Prime time is defined as June 15th to September 15th. The employee's vacation bank will be reduced according to the employee's scheduled shifts for that vacation block.
- b. No individual days or recognized holidays will be considered until all requests for blocks are honoured in prime time as defined above in point 3.
- c. As permitted by point 1(d), individual days or recognized holidays can be scheduled based on seniority during prime time, as defined in point 3, or at any other time during the work year and subject to the provisions of Article 19.6. The Employer shall not unreasonably withhold the approval of individual days or recognized holidays.
- d. For the purpose of granting scheduled time off, the number of employees on scheduled time off will depend on the number of beds.
 - i. Five (5) personal support workers may be scheduled off per day. Without prejudice to the Employer's rights, the Employer will endeavor to allow for additional personal support workers to have scheduled time off per day, paying due regard to the operational needs of the home. This decision will be at the sole discretion of the Employer.
 - ii. In respect of other classifications, the Employer's past practice regarding scheduled time off shall continue adjusted approximately proportionately to the number of beds operated.

Staff on modified duty does not count in the allotment specified in point 3(d) above.

4. Cancelling Scheduled Time Off

An employee who wishes to cancel their approved scheduled time off leave must do so prior to the posting of the related schedule. In the event such notice cannot be provided due to an extenuating circumstance, as approved by the Supervisor, an employee who is negatively affected by another employee cancelling their approved vacation after a schedule is posted, shall be offered a subsequent call-in opportunity to help offset the lost scheduled shift(s), as follows:

- a. Only one offer will be made for each lost scheduled shift.
- b. The offer does not incur overtime.
- c. The offer is in accordance with the hours of work provisions (Article 17.1).

- d. By virtue of allowing priority call-in for this purpose, it is understood that regular call-in practices under Article 17.4 do not apply.
- e. In the case that more than one employee is negatively affected, the opportunity for call-ins shall be offered in order of seniority.

Re: Split Shift During Night Schedule

To assist with adequate coverage of the regular night shift schedule, the parties agree to allow two Personal Support Workers or two RPNs to share a scheduled night shift (being 2300 hours – 700 hours), only after all other call-in measures are exhausted.

For clarity, the parties agree that:

- If an employee notifies the Employer of an absence related to scheduled night shift, the Employer will attempt to fill that shift, in accordance with the established staffing plan, using regular call-in practices outlined in the collective agreement;
- When being offered a night shift opportunity, employees must voluntarily indicate if they are willing to work part of the shift, including whether they are available/interested in the first 4 hours and/or the last 4 hours of the shift;
- Should the shift remain available even after the call-in list has been exhausted, inclusive of offering overtime where applicable, the scheduler, or designate, will call back staff, in the order they indicated interest of a partial shift, and arrange for the shift to be shared;
- Where there is an employee interested in the first half of the night shift, but no employee interested in the second half, the employee designated to be “on-call” may be assigned the second half of this shift. However, the parties agree that where there is no interested employee for the first half of the shift, the employee designated to be “on-call” will be assigned the full shift, even if there is an interested employee for the second half.

RE: Shift Give Away and Exchanging of Short Shifts

Employees may exchange shifts, in accordance with Article 17.8. After all attempts to exchange a shift have been exhausted, an employee may exchange a shift of unequal number of scheduled hours, or give a scheduled shift to another employee, within the same classification, subject to the following:

1. The shift shall be exchanged or given away by the employee offering the shift to other eligible employee, in a manner that is consistent with Article 17.4 – Call-in, where reasonable and able to do so. It is understood that this is the responsibility of the employee who is giving the shift away, and not the responsibility of the Employer. Accordingly any errors or disputes related to this process are not subject to grievance.
2. The employees involved in exchanging a shift or giving away / accepting the shift shall inform the Supervisor or designate through a shift exchange form.
3. Full-time employees shall substitute available banked vacation time or accumulated recognized holidays to offset the scheduled shift given away, or hours lost as a result of exchanging for a shorter shift.
4. The Employer shall not be responsible for overtime claims that might otherwise apply as a result of an employee's acceptance of a shift exchange or give-away.

The parties acknowledge that the intent of this language is to allow flexibility to staff who require adjustments to their schedule and is not intended to circumvent the equitable practices of scheduling and call-in provided for in the collective agreement. Where there are concerns of abuse of this language by an individual and/or group, the parties will meet to discuss. Continued, misuse of this language may warrant discipline.

This Letter of Understanding will automatically expire at the end of the term of the collective agreement unless renewal is specifically negotiated.
